Privacy Policy

The Harrogate Hockey Club privacy policy is outlined below.

Harrogate Hockey Club takes the security of your personal data extremely seriously. All information is collected lawfully and in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. Harrogate Hockey Club will not pass your personal details to anyone. Should our policy ever change, we will inform you and ask your permission before sharing any information. Any personal information will be used only for the purpose it is intended, and will be held for as long as it is needed for the purpose for which it was collected.

WHAT SORT OF INFORMATION IS COLLECTED

You can visit our website and browse through our pages without having to disclose any personal information about yourself. In order to contact us we do require you to register personal details about yourself. During the registration process we will ask you for your name and e-mail address. The sort of information collected depends on how you use our services.

We will not share information with any 3rd parties without first obtaining your permission.

LEGAL NOTICES

The content of this website is provided for information purposes only and the contents hereof are subject to change without notice. The information is not warranted to be error-free, nor subject to any other warranties or conditions, whether expressed orally or implied in law, including implied warranties and conditions of merchantability or fitness for any particular purpose.

We specifically disclaim any liability with respect to this website and no contractual obligations are formed either directly or indirectly by this website.

The club holds certain data relating to each member. This information includes the member's name, address, telephone numbers and e-mail, along with other details of a purely administrative nature. The data is used solely for the purpose of organising events and contacting club members. This information may be disclosed to officers of the club to facilitate the smooth running of the club. It may also be disclosed to third parties such as the regional and national governing bodies.
